The Order of Academic Procession

The audience and graduands will remain seated during the musical prelude. Following a pause in the music the band will play the opening bars of the processional music to signal the arrival of the Chancellor and other members of the Platform Party. The audience and graduands should then rise and remain standing until after the Invocation.

Music provided by the University of Alberta Convocation Band under the direction of Ernest Dalwood, AMus. Vocal accompaniment by Merrill Tanner, graduate student in the Department of Music.

The assistance of the Music Performance Trust Fund and the Edmonton Musicians' Association is gratefully acknowledged.

Please refer to the inside back pages of this program for a short history of academic dress and other academic information.

National Anthem

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Hymne National

O Canada! Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

Royal Anthem

God save our gracious Queen
Long live our noble Queen
God save the Queen
Send her victorious
Happy and glorious
Long to reign over us
God save the Queen.

The Presentation

The Dean of the Faculty of Arts asks the candidates for degrees to rise, and presents them with these words:

"Eminent Chancellor and President, on behalf of the Faculties, I present to you these scholars and ask that they be pledged and admitted to the degrees to which they are entitled."

The Pledge

The President, then rising, addresses the candidates in these words:

"Do you promise faithfully to observe and loyally to maintain the statutes, customs, privileges and liberties of this your University? Do you solemnly promise to conduct yourself in all things loyally and faithfully to the honor of your University, the encouragement of learning and the good of your country?"

Each candidate replies: "These things I pledge myself to do."

The Admission

The Chancellor then addresses the candidates in these words:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Legislature of this Province, and with the consent of this University, I admit you to the degrees to which you are entitled, and invest you with all the powers, rights and privileges pertaining to such degrees, and I charge you to use them for the Glory of God and the honor of your country."

Graduates then sit down.

Jon Stratford Dawson, Edmonton
Patrick Gerard Dolphin, Edmonton
Linda Carol Ord, Quebec

Madeleine Hannah Press, Edmonton
Farid Sultanali Rahemtulla, Edmonton
Sandra June Shaw, Edmonton

Honorary Degree Recipient

---

A native Albertan, Archbishop Henri Routhier was ordained in the Order of Oblates of Mary Immaculate. He spent several years in parochial work, more particularly in St. Paul, and was instrumental in the construction of a church which is now a cathedral. He spent many years in the field of education and became Rector of St. John's College, the predecessor to Faculté Saint-Jean.

In 1945, Archbishop Routhier was appointed Provincial Superior of the Oblates of the Grouard segment of the Order. Two years later, he rose to the rank of full Bishop, and in 1967 to that of Archbishop. He is the first Alberta-born Roman Catholic Bishop.

After his appointment as Bishop of the Vicariate of Grouard, he made an immense contribution to the development of the Peace River area, evidenced by the founding of College Notre Dame in Falher. Archbishop Routhier started a number of new parishes and was a promotor of the cooperative agriculture movement in the area.

Honorary Degree Recipient

The University is proud to honor the man who produced The Canadian Encyclopedia, the largest publishing project in Canadian history.

Mr. Hurtig is a native Edmontonian who began his association with books in 1956 when he opened a small bookstore in the city (it grew into one of the largest retail book operations in Canada). He sold his bookstore in 1972 to concentrate on publishing Canadian books, and since then Hurtig Publishers has produced many titles which have won the Governor General's Award and numerous other awards and prizes. Mr. Hurtig was named Canadian Book Publisher of the year in 1975 and again in 1981.

He has not confined his interests to publishing. During the past fifteen years he has spoken throughout the country on the future of Canada, the dangers of excessive foreign ownership and the development of our natural resources. He is one of the founding members of the Committee for an Independent Canada and is a past national chair of the organization. In 1985, Mr. Hurtig formed the Council of Canadians, dedicated to preserving Canadian economic, cultural and political sovereignty, and he serves as its national chairman.

Mel Hurtig is an Officer of the Order of Canada.

Gowns, Hoods, and Mortar Boards

The tradition of academic dress dates back to the early 14th century. Its origins seem to have been mainly ecclesiastical but partly functional. Since the early institutions of higher learning in England were run by and for the members of religious orders, clerical discipline prevailed, and tonsured heads and clerical garb were required. However, it is probable that long woolen gowns were considered necessary in any case to shield medieval scholars from the dampness and cold of the unheated buildings and that hoods were used to provide warmth to their shaven heads.

The hoods or cowls of monastic orders, which in warm weather could be thrown back to fall between the shoulders, were superseded as headdress by the ecclesiastical calotte or skull cap, but were retained as a sort of cape. After the Reformation the clerical skull cap was replaced by the academic "round cap", a circular, velvet bonnet, which is still prescribed for higher degrees by a number of universities. The mortar board, the hard, square cap that is so commonly used as academic headdress today, evolved from the softer, more flexible "square cap" that was introduced in England in about 1490.

From these early beginnings a code of academic dress gradually evolved. Colors were introduced in the borders and linings of the hoods to distinguish between degrees in different fields of study, and a variety of patterns of both gowns and hoods was developed to distinguish between different levels of degrees.

Stoles

University Governors and Senators are eligible to wear stoles bearing the crest of the University over their gowns, gold faced for Governors and green faced for Senators. In addition they may wear mortar boards with gold or silver tassels.

Degrees with Honors

Degrees with Honors are awarded in two classes, First Class Honors and Honors, to students in the Faculties of Arts or Science with approved qualifications, who follow a more concentrated course of study in a special field under departmental supervision and in accordance with the requirements of the faculty and department.

Degrees with Distinction

The general university provision is that, at the discretion of the faculty concerned, the notation "With Distinction" is inscribed on the permanent record and graduation parchment of a candidate for any degree (except an honors or graduate degree), if the candidate has obtained a grade-point average of 7.5 or higher over the last two years of the program.
